County Judge Expresses Gratitude, Will Not Seek Re-Election

As election season draws near, I'd like to express my deep gratitude to the citizens of Mason County for granting me the distinct honor of serving as county judge since January 2023. Serving in this capacity has been an incredible experience; one that I will forever cherish. After much prayer and consideration, and with a humble heart, I am officially announcing that I will not seek re-election. Though I deeply value public service and hard work - which this office certainly provides - I have discovered that my true calling is to serve and lead in a 'less public' capacity.

To all elected officials and employees whom I've had the privilege to work and serve alongside, thank you! It has truly been a pleasure and I've learned a great deal from each of you.

I am excited to see who is elected as our next county judge! Filing dates and more information about Campaigning in Texas can be found at <https://www.ethics.state.tx.us>. Please feel free to reach out with questions or stop by my office for a visit.
